About

Established in 2018, Bhavya Ramesh is dedicated to the artistry of traditional jewelry making. Led by founder Bhavya Ramesh, we prioritize the human touch, supporting local artisans who craft each piece with meticulous attention to detail, ensuring that our jewelry is not only desirable but also meant to be cherished and passed down through generations.

Rooted in the values of Indian culture, we foster a sense of community and craftsmanship while continuously pushing the boundaries of fashion. Bhavya Ramesh is a distinguished Indian retail brand specializing in the design, development, manufacturing, and distribution of jewelry and body accessories.

Operating from our warehouse in Jaipur, we proudly employ a team of 40 skilled artisans and 10 dedicated workers who contribute to our production processes. Additionally, our business is supported by a proficient team of 30 employees based in Mumbai, focusing on forefront operations.

Renowned for excellence and experimentation in silver jewelry, our unique designs resonate with discerning customers worldwide! We are thrilled to represent our brand and values globally, aiming to continue showcasing the cultural narrative around Indian jewelry.

